DECHEMA's database services are made available subject to the general Terms and Conditions for online access. In addition, the following conditions apply:

- (1) The institution is granted a non-exclusive, non-transferable, limited right to access and use data from „DEETHERM on the WEB“. Any data extracted from DETHERM may only be used within the institution by members of the teaching staff and their students
- (2) The Institution agrees to use DETHERM data solely for:
 - a) Teaching purposes
 - b) Research projects completely financed by the government/state.
- (3) For use of DETHERM data within the scope of (2) the institution is given the special rate of 10 % of the prices of the actual DETHERM pricelist
- (4) The special rate in (3) applies until a transaction volume of 500 € per quarter is reached. For each download exceeding this limit the full list price applies.
- (5) During a quarter, a dataset can be downloaded several times. The institution will be charged only for the first download of a dataset.
- (6) DECHEMA expressly prohibits the Institution the use of DETHERM data in projects financed either totally or partly by third parties under appliance of this contract and the special conditions granted in (3). If the Institution wants to use DETHERM data in such projects a separate agreement is necessary where the standard Terms and Conditions applies.
- (7) The use of DETHERM data as described in (1) and (2) shall be limited to the electronic storage and retrieval of the data on a personal computer, and to reports and research papers where the DETHERM data is incidental to the content of the paper or report.
- (8) Information extracted from DETHERM, except as previously specified, may not be transferred, retransmitted, duplicated, resold, incorporated into a database or offered in any manner to third parties without the written consent of DECHEMA. Any violation of these terms will result in termination of access privileges and possible legal consequences.
- (9) DETHERM is a registered trademark of DECHEMA. The Institution is only allowed to use the name "DEETHERM" when referring to the rights of DECHEMA.
